

The 7th Day of October
COMMEMORATION OF OUR FATHER AMONG THE
SAINTS JONAH, BISHOP OF HANCOW

*On "Lord, I have cried
In the 6th Tone*

6      Clothed in the angelic habit, / O God-bearing Jo_nah, / thou madest thine abode in the Hermitage of Op_._tina, / laying up in thy heart the sayings of the most wise elders, / thereby enriching thyself with knowledge divine. / Wherefore, thy glorious labors are great_ly extolled, / whereby thy flock is edified, // O thou who in spirit art like unto thy *monastic instruct_*tors.

5      Be glad and rejoice, O devastated Russia, / for in thee did Christ light a candle most bright, / the holy hierarch Jo_._.nah, / who was made wise by God, / and who by his virtuous life in the city of Manzhou_li / attracted those of other faiths and those who had abandoned god_._liness. / By his supplications, O Christ, // in Thy lovingkindness send down upon us Thy great_ mercy.

The 7th Day of October
COMMEMORATION OF OUR FATHER AMONG THE
SAINTS JONAH, BISHOP OF HANCOW

*On "Lord, I have cried
In the 6th Tone*

4 As a fulfiller of the Gospel of Christ, / O venerable father Jo_nah, / thou didst feed the hungry, gavest drink to those_._ athirst, / and didst visit the sick and the imprisoned. / Wherefore, O most glorious hier_arch, / entreat the Mas_ter of all, / that in His great love for mankind, / ☩ He have mercy upon_ us, // that we may all be saved on the dread day of His righteous judg_ment.
